

African-American Cemetery Restoration

A Workshop

Sponsored by the Lawnside Historical Society and the Mount Peace Cemetery Association

Saturday, November 22, 2008, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Lawnside Borough Hall, 4 Douglas Ave., Lawnside, N.J.

Photo by Raymond Fussell
Recently placed headstone for John Henry Lawson,
Civil War Medal of Honor Winner at Mount Peace

- Hear experts on archaeology and African-American burial traditions

- Learn the history of Mount Peace Cemetery

Listed on the National and State Registers of Historic Places

- Collect information on proper cemetery restoration techniques and strategies

- Volunteer to work with Mount Peace and other cemetery groups

- Record memories of Mount Peace

Registration: $5 for adults, $2 for students Includes a box lunch and lots of hand-outs

To register, call the Lawnside Historical Society at 856-546-8850 or send email to lhs@petermotthouse.org

Visit our Web Site www.petermotthouse.org

This program is supported by the National Park Service, the New Jersey Historic Trust and the William Short Fund for New Jersey of the National Trust for Historic Preservation

The Lawnside Historical Society is a qualified organization of the New Jersey Cultural Trust

